(c) A company is an artificial legal person distinct from its members. Although in Scotland a partnership has a separate legal personality by virtue of s.4(2) of the Partnership Act 1890, this is much more limited than the personality conferred on companies. (d) A company can have as little as one member and there is no upper limit on membership.

•The law of demand states that an increase in price will decrease the quantity demanded. •When a good has elastic demand, raising the price of each unit sold by 20% will decrease the quantity sold by a larger percentage. The quantity sold will drop enough to reduce the firm's total revenue. •The same process can also work in reverse. If
